

CAROLE FOWLER
... In High Office

Local Girl Installed in Grand Office

Miss Carole Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Fowler, 1703 W. 236th St., Torrance, was installed in the fourth highest office of the International Order of Job's Daughters at the state convention held in Long Beach last week.

Miss Fowler, who will receive her majority degree in the Torrance Bethel 50 in October, was installed as Grand Bethel Guide of the State of California. She was chosen from approximately 6800 girls.

The local girl represented her district at the convention. She is a Torrance High school graduate and will enter her last semester at El Camino in September, working on her teaching credentials.

Also attending was her sister, Miss Patti Fowler, who was recently installed as Honored Queen of the Torrance Bethel. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler accompanied their daughters to the convention.

Secretaries To Receive Merit Awards

Three members of the South Bay Assn. of Educational Secretaries, will receive awards of merit from the National Assn. of Educational Secretaries, under the Professional Standards Program.

Under this program, certificates are granted on an ascending scale of Grades I through IX, and are based on education, work experience, in-service training, and participation in professional organizations.

The following secretaries are receiving certificates this year, to be presented at the convention of the national association in Emporia, Kan. in July.

Mrs. A. G. Kimport, secretary to the superintendent, El Segundo Unified School District, Grade I certificate; Mrs. Leon W. Landon, secretary to the Principal, Billy Mitchell School, Lawndale School District, Grade VI Certificate; and Mrs. Thomas R. Powell, Secretary to the Principal, Washington School, Redondo Beach City School District, Grade VII certificate.

Representing the group at the National Convention is Mrs. David Baggett, secretary to the principal at North High in Torrance.

Weekend Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, Belinda and Peter are spending the weekend with Mr. Boulter's aunt at Planada, near Merced.

Victory CDA Court Seats Officer Panel

Mrs. Richard Wurm, grand regent, and other newly-elected officers of Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America, were officially installed at formal ceremonies conducted by Miss Jeanette Ludescher, district deputy. Mrs. Stacy Rodman was installed by proxy for the Grand Regent-elect, who was unable to be present.

Mrs. Wesley Muzik, retiring Grand Regent, accepted the office of three-year trustee. Mrs. Laura Dupont is vice grand regent, and Mrs. Charles Fischer, prophetess. Other officers are Mmes. Nickolas Humting, financial secretary; Frank Ives, historian; David Crockett, treasurer; Sy Durham, monitor; Rhonald Metro, sentinel; Lee Diamond, lecturer; Miss Jane McLaughlin, organist; Roger Ste. Marie, trustee. Continuing in the office of trustee are Mmes. Stacy Rodman, Ernest Tarrin, Paul Hogan and Fred Gervig.

Father J. Augustine O'Gorman, chaplain, congratulated the new officers and spoke on the dignity of womanhood.

The retiring Grand Regent was presented with the traditional ring and gifts from her officers and members. Her husband surprised her with an engraved desk set and a humorous "welcome home" card, delivered by Mrs. John Condon. Gifts were also presented to retiring district deputy, Miss Jeanette Ludescher and installing monitor, Mrs. Sherman Grimes of Court Ave Aaria and Mrs. Charles Butterworth, organist, from Court St. Catherine.

Distinguished guests in attendance were Mmes. Glenn Cook, state chairman of public relations and publicity; Arthur Rinaldi, Archdiocesan chairman of Juniors; Miss Mariam Clark and Mrs. Ernest Tarrin, district deputies; Mrs. M. Ash and Mrs. Frank Forester, past district deputies.

Among guests from other courts and representing their own courts were the honored, newly-elected Grand Regents Mmes. Robert Klaesges, Ct. St. Catherine; Stanley Kmiecik, Jr., Ct. Our Lady of Providence; Jack Coady, Ct. Ave. Maria; Charles Lohrman, Ct. Star of the Sea; Carl Hibnes, Ct. Madonna; Bill Subaro, Ct. Our Lady of Fatima.

In the morning, the girls were served breakfast. Lisa's guests were Roberta Sherman, Sylvia Egger, Sharon Borum, Kathy Enis and Martha Hauk.

Group Hears Artists Invited To Exhibit

A stimulating and informative evening was enjoyed recently when City Attorney, Stanley E. Remelmeyer, and Fred W. Benon, prominent Redondo Beach attorney, were guest speakers at a combined meeting of the Seaside Community Church Women's Guild and Men's Fellowship.

Following a potluck dinner, the attorneys participated in a dialog on the subject of "Family Legal Documents." They talked about matters such as community property, property deeds, homesteading, adoption, wills, and other family legal problems. Questions from the audience were encouraged through the discussion.

Pajama Party For Classmates

Lisa Lovelady, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lovelady, 2666 Torrance Blvd., celebrated the closing of school with a "pajama" party at her home on June 20.

Lisa and her classmates accompanied by Mrs. Lovelady saw Elvis Presley's movie "Follow the Dream." They returned home where they played records.

In the morning, the girls were served breakfast. Lisa's guests were Roberta Sherman, Sylvia Egger, Sharon Borum, Kathy Enis and Martha Hauk.

Artists Invited To Exhibit

One of the highlights of the Fisherman's Fiesta to be held Aug. 31 through Sept. 2 will be an open air show of paintings of fishing boats and fisherman activities in the Los Angeles Harbor and in and around San Pedro.

This exhibit will be open to all marine artists of Los Angeles County and vicinity. Five paintings from each artist may be submitted for this exhibit. Paintings will be hung in a shady spot convenient to the Fiesta activities.

All works of art will be put under lock and key each night and every effort will be made for sales.

Jury and awards will be announced later. Artists must be 18 or over. No classroom work will be accepted.

For further information contact Vara Grube, 408 Via Monte D'Oro, Redondo Beach.

Home Today

Mrs. Hazel Ward will return today from a week's vacation in Burbank as the guest of an old friend, Mrs. Molly Osborne.

Engagement Announced

The announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Pamela, to Donald Cable was made by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bareford of Torrance at a picnic in San Pedro. Many of the high school and young adult members of the Calvary Baptist Church were in attendance.

Miss Bareford is a graduate of North High School. Her fiancé is employed in the engineering department of North American Aviation.

An early fall wedding is planned by the couple.

Will Study at Marymount

Mary Kathleen McGinley and Kathryn Tyrrell, both of Torrance, have been accepted as students at Marymount College in Palos Verdes Estates.

Miss McGinley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. McGinley and is a transfer student from El Camino College, entering the junior class.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Tyrrell, Miss Tyrrell will be a member of the freshman class on the picturesque cliffside campus.

Classes will begin at Marymount on Sept. 12.

Barbara Vaughn Marries Mike Flanagan on June 16

Miss Barbara Vaughn, daughter of Mrs. Beverly Hacker of Encino, formerly of Torrance, became the bride of Mike Flanagan, son of Mrs. Louise Cattlaud of Manhattan Beach in a formal wedding at the Torrance First Baptist Church on June 16.

Accompanied to the altar by Mr. Lonnie Hacker, the bride wore a gown of white lace and nylon. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Sharon Louise Vaughn was her sister's honor attendant. She wore orchid lace and carried orchid carnations. Teresia Ray, in a floor length white organdy dress, was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Jean-Pierre Cattlaud.

Danny Zink stood as best man and ushers were Roy Newkirk and Bruce Hoffstetler.

Rev. Bob Dehn officiated at the marriage. Frances Roberts played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Maxine Elkins, soloist.

A reception was held in the church hall where the bride's table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake. Miss Carolyn Vaughn was in charge of the guest book. Following a honeymoon, the newlyweds established a home in Manhattan Beach where the bridegroom owns a poodle grooming business.

The new Mrs. Flanagan was graduated from Encino High school this year. Her husband is a graduate of Hollywood High.

Delegates Are Elected

TO MAKE YOUR MONEY DO MORE FOR YOU!

Keep your finances sound...your family's future secure...by using the services of both Glendale Federal and a commercial bank. Combine the primary benefits of each—and you'll achieve balanced financial power.

How You Profit from GLENDALE FEDERAL Services

Glendale Federal Savings specializes in two primary areas: Insured Savings Accounts and Home Loans. This makes Glendale Federal ideal for personal, family, corporate...ALL types of savings accounts where highest earnings with complete safety are desired. Savings grow far faster at our current annual rate of 4 3/4%. This rate is 35% higher than that paid by any commercial bank on a comparable account, with comparable insured safety.

How You Benefit from a BANK Checking Account

Checking accounts are the commercial banks' primary service. A checking account is the convenient place for your family's month-to-month operating funds, and serves as a watchdog for your budget—letting you know exactly where your money's gone. Because it specializes in commercial accounts, your bank is equipped to provide this convenience at nominal cost. But remember, excess dollars in your checking account lose earning power, so don't tie up more money there than you really need.
